Rogers of the Watch Factory
League Rolls 247, While
Pearse Gets 236 and Kromer
225.

The South Bend Watch Factory league jumped into the limelight of bowling Tuesday evening when one man of the Flat Steels rolled better than 200 for a three game average, and Rogers of the same squad bowled 247 for high score. These were the high scores for the evening on the Ellsasser drives. Another feature of the Watch factory bowling Tuesday evening developed when the Jewelings captured the first game from the Steels, lost the second game and the third was a tie. The Jewelings' total scores rolled over the Steels was 50 pins.

Pearse of the Ambidexters in the City league also rolled a high score of 236 and an average of 183.3. The Ambidexters bested the City Hall squad by nearly 100 pins on the totals. In the Mishawaka league the Oscars defeated the All Dodgees on the totals.

INSTALLING ALLEYS IS INTERESTING WORK

An interesting and educational procedure may be witnessed by anyone for the next two weeks in the installing and constructing of the six new bowling alleys in the second floor pin hall of the Ellsasser institution. Two bowling experts, East Petroosky and Richard Laube of the Brunswick-Balke-Colender company, who are installing the alleys, are in the city and have been at work since Monday morning. The two men are working incessantly to have the new alleys completely installed by the first of the new year, in time for the opening of the South Bend and Mishawaka Factory Bowling league. These new alleys will probably be used by the new league which is being formed for the finish of the bowling season.

The construction of the new alleys on the upper floor is considerable and more extensive than those placed on ground floors for foundations. The new alleys have a special patented noiseless foundation and it is claimed that when completed no noise from the roller ball or toppling pins will be heard on the floor below.

The foundations for the upper floor alleys are quite complicated. The first work of their construction is the placing of tar paper over the entire floor, after which eight-inch standards for supporting the two by four cross pieces, will be set on half-inch cork carpet. Cork carpet is used extensively throughout the construction of the foundations, and wherever wood comes in contact with wood cork cushions are used which take up all vibrations and jars. Between the floor proper of the building and the first floor of the alleys and eight-inch space is left which is filled to four inches with cinders and the other four as an air space for keeping the alleys dry. The secret of the noiseless alleys lies in the cork cushions and the cinders, which to many seems very simple, but for several weeks bowling fans have been discussing the method to be used in making the alleys noiseless, and many theories were advanced, but none hit the cork cushion and cinder plans.

After the first alley floor is placed a heavy thickness of felt paper will be laid over the entire floor on which four-inch leveling strips the full length of the alleys will be installed. Above the leveling strips the alley floor proper will be placed and on which considerable time will be placed by the two men in hand planing, scraping and sanding to perfectly smooth surface.

Arrangements are now being completed by the promoters of the South Bend and Mishawaka Factory Bowling league to organize and be in readiness for the opening of the 14 spring bowling tournaments. A meeting will be called within a few days and officers for the league will be elected and captains for the various teams will be selected. It is the object of the promoters to secure two teams from each of the factories which were represented in the baseball league last summer.
